Please use this form to provide feedback or alternatively email us .

We do not mind receiving comments, good or bad. But we have no time for people who deliberately give us false email addresses. They have no real argument and so only wish to throw rubbish at us, with no come-backs! Such false communications are deleted and are treated as being without worth. So, please save your energy and contempt for proper avenues of argumentation.

Time is short and we publish what we believe to be true. Therefore, please note that we will only respond in full to those who are genuinely seeking to build their faith in Christ or who wish to provide constructive critical comment on the Web site content.

Our postal address is at the bottom of the page. If you wish to speak to us please provide your telephone number in the message box with international dialing code. We will endeavour to reply within 48 hours.

Our GDPR privacy statement can be found here .

Please provide the following contact information so that we can get back to you:
