

{jathumbnail off}

By K B Napier

'Tradition vs Scripture' this books exposes the errors grounded in tradition found in Reformed churches

'Reformationism' refers to the way churches have allowed useless traditions (some unscriptural) to overshadow the good work done by the Reformers. This book highlights a few of these errors, replacing them with scriptural models.

First Edition January 2007:

eBook PDF £5.00 (154 pages)

Paperback £13.65 (154 pages)