

Homophobia - Stupid Nonsense!

Time and again, I hear churchmen referring to 'homophobia' as though such a condition really existed. Every time I hear the word, coined by homosexuals, I become angry. Why? Because, by sly propaganda, homosexuals have been successful in making the word known to millions: they have ensured that it has become synonymous with unwarranted bigotry. And Christians are unwitting pawns in this crafty game.

A UK national newspaper (I cannot remember which) did a survey and discovered that most people in the UK thought that homosexuality was a foul and obnoxious activity. The writer of the article concluded that the whole 'homosexual thing' was made up of a 'majority of noise from just a handful of people!' And they are right. But, to listen to homosexuals you would think their sinful habit was widespread and that everybody accepted it.

For myself, I have always found homosexuality repellent and evil. It is an inborn revulsion, not learned. The same goes for everyone else, including 'homosexuals'. This is why they spend so many years attempting to blot the instinct (conscience) out of their minds!

In this paper I wish to bring three points to the minds of readers: Firstly, that 'homophobia' is an invention of homosexuals and secondly

, that

'homosexuality'

does not exist as a condition.

Thirdly

, I will call on all Christians to show their revulsion for this very public sin.

Homophobia

The word 'homo' can have two meanings: as in 'homosexual', i.e. 'same sex' or, as in Homo Sapiens, i.e. the whole human race. The word 'homophobia' is a concoction used by so-called 'homosexuals' to mean an irrational fear of homosexuals or fear of sex between two of the same gender. This is stupid nonsense - it actually means 'fear of Mankind'! It is 'stupid' because homosexuals are trying to make accusations without reason.

But, do Christians 'fear' homosexuality and homosexuals? In a way, they should, but not in the way 'homosexuals' refer to it. We should fear the influence they have on others and the fact that those within the churches have fallen to their insidious propaganda, and also their diseases. But fear of those who indulge in this sexual perversion?

No!

Take my own attitude. When I worked as a psychiatric nurse, a Freudian consultant psychiatrist told me that I was afraid of 'latent' homosexuality within myself and that was why I was repulsed by homosexuality. I laughed in his face and told him that my revulsion was natural and that I did not fear homosexuality, but hated it with the authority of scripture. I then challenged him to produce evidence for his argument.

He could not and during his feeble book-learned diatribe, he managed to wriggle out of it when he saw I was winning the argument!

So, the first lesson is this: 'homophobia' is just stupid nonsense and it does not really exist. Christians must know why they oppose homosexuality.

The main reason is that

God

calls it a vile sin

, repugnant to human beings, a degradation and a perversion worthy of hell. That it also brought AIDS to the Western world (and probably to Africa, too, if we trace incidences of the disease backwards to their root cause), is secondary, but still important. The revulsion human beings feel for homosexuality is proper and can be deemed an 'instinct', i.e. implanted by God. Thus, all Believers must challenge use of the word 'homophobic'. Do so by writing to newspapers and others. Say why you challenge it and be confident. Don't back down in the face of the often manic, hysterical outbursts of 'homosexuals'. Don't allow 'homophobic' to become grafted into our language: it is a major tool of the pro-homosexual lobby, so cut it down at its root.

Homosexuality

As one who has studied this sinful phenomenon for over 30 years I can assure readers that 'homosexuality' does not exist as a condition. That is, it is not a natural part of Man, with an implanted cause. Homosexuality is merely a bad habit, a choice made by individuals who wish to enjoy perverted sexual behaviour. 'Homosexuals' have to smother their own inward revulsion and mental warnings for a long time before they 'accept' what they themselves do. This is why, after they 'come out', they make so much fuss in public. But, their public antics are not signs of confidence in their 'cause', they are signs of gross insecurity, because they know, inwardly, they are grossly wrong. As the saying goes -

Unlike sexual sins such as prostitution, homosexuality is a true 'perversion' (bestiality is another example). Certain sexual sins are founded on a base, but natural, use of the body. But, homosexuality perverts the natural use and is beyond the boundary of what is natural. This especially applies to anal sex: the anus is designed for expulsion of waste matter; its musculature is designed to push outward, not inward. Its membranes are so delicate as to tear easily. (Some married/heterosexual couples indulge in this act, but it is still a perversion). None of this applies to the way God designed a woman's body. Thus, the prime activity of homosexuals is centred on the misuse and abuse of an organ of waste!

The major reason to oppose homosexuality is that God does so, in the most vivid of terms. He does not condone this sin in any form but, rather, says that He hates it with a passion. His hatred has nothing to do with fear, but with the fact that men and women (homosexuality refers to both) choose to disobey Him and habitually practice a sexual perversion, called a perversion because

He designed man and woman to be natural partners and to be 'in His image'. Homosexuals reject 'His image'.

We must not accept the word 'homosexual' or 'homosexuality'. Instead, we should refer to male 'homosexuals' as Sodomites and their activity as 'sodomy'. In this way we bring them back face-to-face with what the Bible says. There is no other viable alternative. (2007 Note: For reasons of communication we must now use 'homosexual' when talking to the unsaved).

It is often true that when public pressure is great, most people will back down, even if they do not believe what they are being told. Most people dislike, or even loathe, homosexuality. Yet, they remain silent because of what they perceive to be a possible public backlash. But, the backlash does not come from the public, it comes from a very well organised 'gay' lobby, just a few in number. They only sound as though they are speaking for the majority, because many of their ilk control the media, who make out that homosexuality is now an acceptable way to live.

Don't believe it for a moment! Go with your instincts and with God's word. What it says is correct - Sodomy is a perversion to be shunned and opposed. You are right to think of it as filthy and appalling; vile and disgusting; humiliating and devoid of decency; atrocious and grossly evil. It is ALL of those things, and more (See Article on Romans 1). Don't back down to Sodomite propaganda (which demands 'freedom' for themselves, but not for others)!
