I have said it before and now some in the media are taking notice...

The majority of 'refugees' are young men with cash and plenty of bad attitude.

Even though Hungary closed its border, they had no right to react violently!

On its own this is sufficient proof that theirs is a cash-cow mission to drain Europe of its benefits and other helps. And if they are so arrogant (as Muslims tend to be) as to fight police while they travel to the UK and Germany, they will continue their anti-social attitude and behaviour when they at last get their benefits. These migrants hate the West, yet they will cynically get what they can from western countries! They hate Christians but will take everything given to them by well-wishers... Christians who have no idea what they are doing by supporting these nasty migrants who have no real reason to be here. Wake up or be badly let down.
