See the true Allah-phat

Because there’s an elephant in the room, a MAN has to try and squeeze himself around it, so the elephant isn’t alarmed.

The man doesn’t think of getting the elephant out, because everyone says it is not there. It doesn’t exist. But, over just a week, elephant dung starts to fill the room, covering the man and finally suffocating him.

Rescuers come in and say “We don’t know what killed him. There appears to be no problem in the room. He must have died of natural causes” . Even though dung fills the dead man’s lungs, covers his whole body and stinks, and the elephant that caused it remains in the room.

IT ISN’T ISLAM! IT ISN’T ISLAM!
