Your parliamentary colleagues tell us that you make decisions based on facts.

So when will you deal with the facts that:

- Islam is at war with the West. Normality is turned into carnage by followers of Islam e.g. Nice, etc. (The Telegraph, 15 July 2016)
- Muslims follow an ideological religion which is the antithesis of Judaeo-Christian values of freedom, democracy, rule of law, justice and living at peace with your neighbour.
- Islam was founded on brutality and barbarism to dominate the infidel and its scriptures propagate the same message, which is carried out across the world by its followers.
- Islam is not a race. Yet racist legislation is used to oppose criticism of Muslims.
- The concept of a 'moderate' Muslim is propaganda to keep us all quiet and have a false sense of security. How can an individual be a moderate if they uphold and praise the scriptures and law of a death cult, like Islam?

When will you declare Islam illegal in the UK and determine that all those who follow this treasonous religion leave?
