

France needs to "take more responsibility" for Calais Migrants

Written by K B Napier
Monday, 26 September 2016 19:42

On the news today – French President Francois Hollande repeats its strident call for the UK to “take more responsibility” for the migrants camped in Calais. (The Telegraph, 26 September 2016)

WHY??

The migrants are NOT genuine refugees or asylum seekers.

By international law they are therefore illegals.

Also, France allowed them into France, not us!! They should take their complaint to Merkel and Germany, the REAL culprit.

It's about time the UK government told them so.

WE DON'T WANT THE MIGRANTS. SIMPLE AS THAT. Let them scrounge from someone else. Take in the nearly-nil genuine asylum seekers, but the rest – all Muslims – can be sent back home.

THAT is up to France, not the UK.